Dear Gregory,

Congratulations on being selected for membership in the National English Honor Society. You have distinguished yourself by your outstanding achievement in English and are among a very select number of individuals who have been invited into the NEHS community. Your family, teachers, and we at the NEHS Central Office have high expectations that you will continue to nurture your passion for English and that you will continue to excel in English language arts.

Membership in NEHS makes you part of an international network of individuals who enjoy the same things you enjoy. Now it's time to start making NEHS an important part of your academic life!

Visit the NEHS website, www.nehs.us, and look for the blue tab labeled "New Members." Here you will find the information to help you get involved.

- ✓ Sign up to receive email on opportunities, including over $30,000 scholarship and awards.
- ✓ Link to NEHS Twitter, Instagram, and Facebook and share your ideas with other members.
- ✓ Tap into our noteworthy activities database for exciting and meaningful projects for your chapter.

NEHS is a society, and a society is a community of people. The honor you receive through induction is not just a notation on an honor society list—it is an opportunity to be part of a group of like-minded, accomplished individuals. Your voice is important because this is your organization! I urge you to take an active role—because you can and do make a difference. It is truly a pleasure to welcome you into the National English Honor Society.

Sincerely,

David Wendelin
